VALUES

- Respect for each other, ourselves and our community.
- We display resilience in all we do.
- We aspire for excellence in all we do.
- We embrace and celebrate success of ourselves and each other.
- We take pride in our school, our community and what it stands for.

At Cockshut Hill School our curriculum aims to:

- Provide our students with a varied curriculum offer that promotes ambition and accounts for the social contexts of our students.
- Develop students Cultural Capital through varied curriculum experiences that inspire students and help them gain an appreciation of achievement, creativity and nature.
- Foster a culture where reading is important to students both in school and throughout their lives.
- Enable students to coherently understand, remember and make connections between the knowledge they are taught within and across subject areas.
- Deliver powerful and challenging knowledge to students to drive their learning experiences and their emotional intelligence.
- Encourage students to embrace and have opinions on the social, moral, spiritual and cultural issues they may encounter throughout their lives.
- Instil resilience and ambition in our students by promoting challenging ideas and concepts in lessons.

Our curriculum will be delivered in accordance with the 5 principles of T&L from "Making Every Lesson Count" by S. Allison and A. Tharby.

Teaching staff follow an excellence in teaching model that enables them to bring the curriculum to life by using the 5 principles to embed deep learning.
